Knowle Farm is deep in the High Weald just north of the old drove road that connects Heathfield with Burwash and Hurst Green to the east. At the beginning of the 18th C the Mayfield Gang practised non-violent owling (wool smuggling) to France, returning with brandy and silks. Two decades later the notorious Hawkhurst Gang had risen to prominence and dominated smuggling operations from the Kent coast across Sussex and as far west as Dorset. Whilst we can't promise you any illicit liquor, we can promise two days of fantastic trialling.
