ALRC National 2012 NEWS and update.

Reminder of FREE ALRC Club stands, EARLY BOOKING DISCOUNT, and free camping prize draw.

Dear fellow Club Secretaries, Webmasters and Editors.

The 2012 event is hosted by Lincolnshire Land Rover Club and Peak & Dukeries Land Rover Club at Belvoir Castle near Grantham. The site has excellent road links and is only a few miles from the A1 on the A52.

The site has a level well drained camping field. The competition area is in a wooded valley adjacent to the field featuring a variety of terrain from forestry tracks to a disused quarry face. There will be events throughout the weekend in the arena and in the competition arena adjacent to the caravan field.

We would like to remind ALRC member clubs that they can hold a FREE trade stand around the arena (camping not included). You can show off vehicles and show off your club activities. We have had some feedback and know of Clubs planning to attend but would now like a firm commitment from you to assist us with planning.

For more details or to book in contact Sam at trader@alrc2012.co.uk Clubs can book a stand on line, just put in the notes section "Free Club Stand".

Please SUPPORT Race2Recovery

ALRC 2012 are proud to welcome the team from Race2recovery to compete and fundraise for three charities at the event. The Royal British Legion, Help for Heroes and Combat Stress. Please help us support those who serve us. You will be able to make a donation on line with your entry and we will present the team with a cheque at the event. Every pound donated will help a wounded serviceman or woman. A big Thank you to those who have already made donations.

Visit race2recovery.co.uk. to find out more about this inspirational team.

We look forward to seeing you.
